

August 12

On August 12, 1898, Hawaii was annexed to the United States. This means that the islands became property of the U.S. Hawaii actually didn't become the 50th state until August, 21, 1959. Using resources in the classroom, learn five (5) facts about this state and summarize them in your own words.