

December 23rd is known as “Roots Day.” These “roots” refer to your family. Make a list of all your family members. With some help from an adult, create a family tree that shows the relationships between all of the family members.