On this day in 1967, the first Super Bowl played. Green Bay defeated Kansas City by a score of 35 to 10. To make it to the Super Bowl, football teams must work together.

What do you think is the most difficult part of working with other students, or in teams, at school? What are the advantages of working with others?