

In 1933, construction of the Golden Gate Bridge in San Francisco began. The bridge later opened on November 30, 1936. Using resources in your classroom, learn five (5) facts about this engineering marvel and put them in your own words. Why is this such a special bridge?