

On this day in 1899, author E.B. White was born. White is the author of Charlotte's Web. As you may know, this book was recently made into a movie. Do you think it's better to read a book before seeing the movie? Why or why not?