

On this day in 1957, the United States Surgeon General, Leroy E. Burney, announced there was a direct link between tobacco smoking and lung cancer. Use various supplies in your classroom to create an advertisement warning people of the dangers of smoking.