

On this day in 1851, the first ice cream factory was set up. The United States produces around 1.6 billion gallons each year, making them the leader in world ice cream production. Other than on a cone or in a bowl, what are some other ways you can eat ice cream?

