

The last week of June is “National Camping Month.” Plan a camping trip for your family. Be sure to include the following:

- Where would you want to go?
- What would you need to bring?
- What activities would you like to do at the campsite?