

On June 27, 1880, Helen Keller was born. A childhood illness left Keller both blind and deaf. She went on to later become a famous author and speaker. What type of characteristics do you think Keller had to possess in order to overcome her obstacles?