On this day in 1859, the melody for the “Happy Birthday Song” was written. Using this tune, write a new song that you could sing to a friend or family member letting them know how much you appreciate them.