

On this day in 1964, Alaska was hit by an 8.4 earthquake. The “Great Alaska Earthquake” was the most powerful earthquake recorded in the U.S. and North America. Using resources in the classroom, learn five (5) facts about the earthquakes and summarize them in your own words.