

November 3

Today is Election Day across the United States. If you were 18 years old, would you vote today? Why is it important for the citizens of our country to cast their votes?