

On this day in 1984, a British scientist by the name of Alec John Jeffreys discovered the DNA “fingerprint.” During his work he discovered that we each have our own unique DNA pattern. Using resources in the classroom, learn more about the history of DNA and how it’s being used today. Write at least one paragraph summarizing your findings.