

On September 25, author and illustrator Shel Silverstein was born. Silverstein is known for his crazy, fun and silly poems. Read several poems from several of his books. Select one of the poems and create your own poem that mimics the specific style, pattern, etc. that he has used in that poem. Don't forget to illustrate your poem, once again staying within the style of Silverstein.