

On this day in 1850, California became the 31st state. California's motto is "Eureka!" which is a Greek word meaning, "I have found it." This motto can be found on their state seal. A motto is a brief statement that expresses a goal or idea. Create a motto for yourself and explain why you chose that motto.